Symposium Organizers

Professor Mike Oaksford (Birkbeck College, University of London) Ms Georgia Holyfield, (Birkbeck College, University of London) (g.holyfield@bbk.ac.uk).

The 7th London Reasoning Workshop: 25th to the 26th of July 2013(Rm. 421)

09:15-09:30	Tea & Coffee in room 414. Welcome by Mike Oaksford
Symposium 1: Conditional Reasoning
09:30—10:00	Mike Oaksford & Nick Chater  Dynamic inference and everyday conditional reasoning in the new paradigm
10:00—10:30	Henrik Singmann, Karl Christoph Klauer, & Sieghard Beller Comparing Models of Probabilistic Conditional Reasoning: Evidence for an Influence of Form
10:30—11:00	Karolina Krzyzanowska, Slyliva Wenmackers, & Igor Douven The variety of conditionals and the evidential function of epistemic modals
11:00—11:30	Tea & Coffee in room 414
11:30 —12:00	Nicole Cruz & Klaus Oberauer Comparing interpretations of 'if' and 'all'
12:00—12:30	Geoff Goodwin Is the basic conditional probabilistic?
12:30—13:00	Igor Douven, Shira Elqayam, Janneke van Wijnbergen-Huitink, & David Over Conditionals as truncated argument
13:00—14:00	Lunch
14:00—14:30	Nina Attridge & Matthew Inglis Studying advanced mathematics fosters a defective interpretation of conditionals.
14:30-—15:00	Niki Pfeifer Conditionals under incomplete knowledge
15:00-—15:30	Shira Elqayam, Meredith Wilkinson, Valerie Thompson, Jonathan Evans, & David Over Is-ought inference is pragmatic, utilitarian, and defeasible
	Symposium 2: Mental Models
15:30-—16:00	Sunny Khemlani, Greg Trafton, Phil Johnson-Laird Deduction as stochastic simulation
16:00—16:30	Tea & Coffee in room 414
16:30—17:00	Marco Ragni The consistency of monadic assertions
17:00—17:30	Phil Johnson-Laird, Monica Bucciarelli, Robert Mackiewicz, & Sunny Khemlani Simulation in thinking

Symposium 3: Dual Processes & Individual Differences
17:30—18:00	Valerie Thompson TBA
18:00—18:30	Dries Trippas, Simon J. Handley, & Michael F. Verde Individual differences in belief bias are important
18:30	Wine reception (Dinner at Paradiso, 19:30)	* Indicates speaker

BBK, University of London, Malet Street, Bloomsbury, London WC1E 7HX Location: Room 421

08:45-09:00	Tea & Coffee in room 414
Symposium 3 (Continued): Dual Processes & Individual Differences
09:00—09:30	Meredith R. Wilkinson & Linden J. Ball Dual processes in mental state reasoning
09:30—10:00	Vittorio Girotto Probabilistic reasoning by illiterate individuals
10:00—10:30	Jonathan StB. T. Evans, Valerie Thompson, & David Over Belief consistency in conditional inference: The role of dual processes
	Symposium 4: Causal, Inductive and Counterfactual Reasoning
10:30—11:00	Denis Hilton & Christophe Schmeltzer How do people designate actual cause? The role of event description, causal structure and counterfactual reasoning
11:00—11:30	Tea & Coffee in room 414
11:30 —12:00	William Jimenez Leal Causal assessment of similarity in argumentation
12:00—12:30	Tobias Gerstenberg, Christos Bechlivanidis, & David Lagnado Back on track: Backtracking in counterfactual reasoning
12:30—13:00	Nadya Y. Vasilyeva & John D. Coley Explanation as a Source of Property Effects in Inductive Reasoning
13:00—14:00	Lunch
14:00—14:30	Peipeng Liang, Vinod Goel, Xiuqin Jia, & Kuncheng Li Differential contributions of left and right hemispheres to the inclusion fallacy in category-based induction
	Symposium 4: Miscellaneous
14:30-—15:00	Sylvie Leblois & Jean-François Bonnefon People are more likely to lie when they are more likely to tell the truth.
15:00-—15:30	Jos Hornikx The effect of text length and order on people's sensitivity to evidence quality variations

15:30-—16:00	Katya Tentori, David Lagnado, Silvia Stefani
	Does the prospect of an alternative suspect decrease the perceived probability of the defendant's guilt?
16:00—16:30	Bond, R.L., Ormerod, T.C. & Ball, L.J.  Are they doing what we think they are doing? An entropy model of pseudodiagnosticity
16:30	Pub * Indicates speaker

Fire instructions for students and visitors

Our fire alarms are tested between 08.00 and 08.40 on week-days. Alarm tests involve intermittent bursts of sound of only a few seconds duration.

The main fire alarm is a continuous ringing bell or continuous siren in all Birkbeck buildings. When a continuous alarm sounds you must leave the building immediately.

There will be no other warning messages!

If you hear a continuous fire alarm

- 1. Leave the building immediately by the nearest exit. Do not delay to collect your belongings.
- 2. Do not use the lifts or the phone.
- 3. Follow the instructions of your tutor, course leader and/or fire marshals.
- 4. Move well away (100 metres) from the exits once outside
- 5. Do not stand in the road/street.
- 6. Do not re-enter the building unless told it is safe to do so

If you discover a fire

- 1. Operate the nearest fire alarm (red "break-glass" boxes on walls)
- 2. The Duty Attendant at Malet Street will be automatically contacted in every case and will immediately call the Fire Brigade.
- 3. Do not try to fight a fire unless you have been trained to use fire extinguishers.
- 4. Leave the building by the nearest exit

Explore the College. Get to know all the fire exit routes available to you. In the event of a fire you may need to use more than one.

Birkbeck's emergency number 555 may be dialled from any Birkbeck telephone (except Bedford and Tavistock Square) to report any safety/security emergency and/or to request help. "555" calls are routed to a dedicated 'phone manned at all times by a Duty Attendant who will summon the required assistance, by dialing 999 if need be. It is imperative that a "555" caller identifies him/herself, specifies the assistance required and states in which building and location in that building the emergency exists. Many classrooms and lecture theatres have phones within them for this and other purposes.

Thank you, Birkbeck Fire Officer
